

Meet Cheryl Greany Clark-Wilkins Special Education Teacher

As part of her graduate work in special and elementary education at Rivier College, Cheryl Greany completed both of her student teaching internships at Clark-Wilkins School. Mrs. Greany worked in first grade at Clark School with Barbara Bellipanni and in special education in the fourth grade at Wilkins School with Karen Mayes. Cheryl Greany has also served as a long term substitute in second and fourth grade, while she has also completed a long-term substitute position for one of the Clark-Wilkins literacy teachers. Mrs. Greany has also served as a daily substitute and as a community representative on the Clark-Wilkins Behavior Intervention Team--a group that has focused on developing common rules, behaviors, and expectations for all students in all Clark-Wilkins School settings. Mrs. Greany is replacing Janet Davis during the current school year, while Mrs. Davis assumes the role of interim principal at Clark-Wilkins School. Mrs. Greany brings to Clark-Wilkins a variety of valuable educational experiences, in addition to her role as parent of two young sons. We appreciate the strengths and talents that Cheryl Greany brings to her role as a special education teacher at Clark-Wilkins School and welcome her to our school communities.
